

My Goals

1. Why do I want to learn this skill?

What does it mean to you? What are your motivations? Will you prove something to yourself or people around you? Will you get a raise because you're better at your job or will you get a better job?

I want to become a master web developer, I want to get a high paid position after mastering this skill, I want to create a dependency for my skills within the organization I work for

2. What will I achieve if I learn this skill?

Which doors will this skill open for you? Will you be able to earn more, have more flexibility in your work hours, work remotely and travel more?

Earn more, 100,000 CAD per annum, More exciting projects to work with

3. How will this skill change my life and my career?

Would you get a raise at your current job or more respect from your boss once you've learnt this skill? Or will you be at Facebook, Amazon or Google instead? How would your life change?

Learning this skills puts me right on track on what I want to be instead of what I get in life. I want to become a developer and I want to earn more.

4. How will learning this skill impact the lives of my family, friends and coworkers?

What will you be able to do for your family or friends once you've learnt this skill? How will it change the way they think of you? Will your coworkers respect you more?

I can support my family better, better care for Mom and my wife

5. How will I feel if I never accomplish this?

Would you feel disappointed? Would you feel like you've missed out?

Frustrated and struck

6. What would my life look like if I manage to accomplish this?

Visualise it. What would life look like from the moment you wake up to the time you go to sleep? Will you be living by the sea? Would you kiss your beautiful wife/husband when you wake up?

Kiss my beautiful wife :P
